

RETIREE CONNECTION

Greetings from your friends at Servant Solutions! We are grateful for the many ways you have served the Church and continue to make a difference in this season of life. Retirement may look different than years past, but your calling and your impact remain. Thank you for trusting Servant Solutions through your working years and into retirement. Our team is always here to support you, answer questions, and walk alongside you as you continue this journey. Please don't hesitate to reach out if there is any way we can help you.

"Are you ready to start saving or do you want to keep throwing your money away on food, clothing and shelter?"

A CALLING THAT CONTINUES

BY JODI HULL, DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

My husband has recently retired, and it has been a gift to watch the quiet ways his calling continues to take shape in this new season. Years ago, he was the Sunday School teacher who chose a little book called Enjoying the Presence of God by Jan Johnson and led our class through it. The book uses as its example the story of Brother Lawrence, who practiced prayer as a simple, ongoing awareness of God, even while doing ordinary tasks. It was a book that impacted us all. We learned that prayer does not have to be eloquent. It does not have to be long to be meaningful. And we learned the beauty of turning the ordinary moments throughout the day into moments of prayer.

My husband's latest focus has been on intercessory prayer. The other night, he went to pick up a dinner order and ended up waiting an exceptionally long time. I called to check in. Was he frustrated? Not at all. When I asked what he was doing while he waited, he said, "Praying for everyone I can think of." And I realized again how powerful that simple posture is. Those quiet minutes, which could have been wasted or irritating, became an offering.

I know that those of you reading this understand these truths well. You have lived them. You have taught them. You have carried people in prayer and led others to do the same. This is simply a reminder, and a thank you. We know many of you regularly lift Servant Solutions and our team to God in prayer. I believe that someday, we will see how God used your prayers to protect, strengthen, and guide this organization in unseen ways.

Retirement does not mean the end of ministry. As long as there is a continued focus on serving God, blessing others, and sharing your faith, your ministry continues. That can happen through writing, encouraging conversations, mentoring, or leading groups. It can also happen through intercessory prayer, often in moments no one else sees, when faithfulness is known only to God.

So what does it mean to become a “prayer warrior”? It is not about impressive words or logging a certain number of minutes. It is about faithfulness. It is about learning to return to God throughout the day and lifting others up consistently. It is choosing to look to the interests of others, as Philippians 2:3–4 calls us to do, and trusting that God is working in ways we may never fully see (1 Corinthians 2:9).

If you want to grow in intercessory prayer, consider a few simple tools: keep a prayer list, pray Scripture, set a daily reminder, use a prayer journal, or choose a “prayer rhythm” tied to something you already do each day. And just a reminder: prayer does not require perfection. It requires presence. God meets His servants in the ordinary moments, and He uses faithful prayers to accomplish extraordinary Kingdom work.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our 2025 member survey. Your input matters, and it will help us continue serving those who serve with excellence. We're grateful for your partnership and the opportunity to walk alongside you.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SECURING YOUR ONLINE ACCESS

Why Online Access Matters

In today's digital world, cybersecurity is paramount. Even if you never intend to monitor your account online, we urge you to establish your online credentials. While Servant Solutions and Principal® take extensive measures to protect your account, accounts without online access set up can be more vulnerable to hacking attempts.

Changes to Account Security

Our recordkeeper, Principal®, implemented additional security measures for all accounts starting July 1st, 2024. These changes are designed to prevent unauthorized access, but they may make the initial online access setup process slightly more involved.

Important Customer Guarantee Update

Additionally, Principal® has updated their customer protection guarantee. Effective July 1st, 2024, if you haven't set up online access and your account is compromised, Principal's guarantee to restore stolen funds may not apply.

Taking Action is simple

1. visit servantsolutions.org
2. Select the Plan Information page
3. Scroll down to Account Access Information.

Keep these directions handy as you go to personal account login at the top of the Servant Solutions home page. This link will take you to the log in portal of Principal®.

Setting up online access is a one-time effort, and we understand you might not visit your account regularly afterward—that's perfectly fine! The important thing is that your account will be secure, giving you the peace of mind to focus on what truly matters in this season of life.

Take this small but significant step today to protect the retirement funds you've worked so hard to save. If you need assistance, our team is here to help! You can always contact us at info@servantsolutions.org or via phone at 765-642-3880.
